NASW REQUEST FOR PROFESSIONAL REVIEW (RPR)

ETHICS

One copy of this RPR, together with a one- to three-page summary statement about the issue, should be filed with the

	ee. A separate RPR is required for each individuate, hereby file a requ	C
Association of Social Wor		est for professional review by the National
ADDRESS:
	BUSINESS PHONE:
	EMAIL ADDRESS:
	BUSINESS PHONE:
Was Respondent an active me	mber of NASW at the time of events to be reviewed? If	unsure, please contact
NASWProfessionalReview@brightkey.net to confirm membership prior to submission.		n.
Is this matter currently under review in another venue?		☐ Yes ☐ No
DATE(S) of ALLEGED events	to be reviewed:
	DATA TO BE FURNISHED BY THE CO	OMPLAINANT
The Complainant must provide	the following information related to the request in a sepa-	rate statement to be attached to this required RPR form.
 Confidentiality Pledge/St Statement of issue. The st 	atement of Understanding Form atement must

- - be no more than three (3) legible pages, double-spaced, 12-point font.
 - include a description of how the alleged misconduct violated the NASW Code of Ethics (citing specific standards).
 - include a list and detailed description of materials, evidence, and documentation to be used that will support the allegations.
 - include a list of specific witnesses.
 - provide a summary of any other actions taken to correct this matter, including steps within the agency and the status of any legal actions related to this matter.
- 3. Complainant's agreement to release confidential documents. By engaging in this process the Complainant agrees that they are
 - authorizing the release of their confidential information for use in the professional review proceedings.
 - authorizing the release of confidential information about the Complainant or the issues raised in the RPR that is in the custody of the Respondent.
 - permitting the Respondent to use and disclose confidential information contained in confidential clinical notes to prepare a response to the RPR and participate fully in the professional review process.
- 4. Full disclosure. By engaging in this process the Complainant agrees to provide any and all facts and information that are material and necessary to the issues or allegations at hand, so long as the provision of such facts and information would not violate any applicable laws. Complainant understands that it is their responsibility to obtain any additional consents necessary for the release of confidential information.

The information I have provided in this RPR and supporting statement is true and correct, and I am able and willing to assert under oath that this is true.

SIGNATURE: DATE REQUEST FILLED:

> National Ethics Committee • Intake Subcommittee National Association of Social Workers • 750 First Street, NE, Suite 800, Washington, DC 20002